HIGH SCHOOL SENIOR SUNDAY

Today are recognizing our High School Seniors with a blessing and quilt presentation in our worship service. Congratulations to Rivers Eagleson, Sage Flory, Annika Johnson, Hannah Morey. We celebrate this exciting moment in their life journey.

SHOW YOUR HERITAGE ON PENTECOST SUNDAY

On Pentecost Sunday June 5 you are invited to wear a t-shirt or a traditional outfit—such as a Bunad, a Kilt or Lederhosen—that highlights your ethnic heritage to the worship service. We want to celebrate how the power of the Holy Spirit unites us together in Christ. Let's have some fun and show our spirit by getting dressed up.

CONSTITUTION UPDATE STATUS

The council has now held two information sessions to share the proposed updates to the congregation's constitution and receive questions about the document. The council has also submitted our updated constitution to the Northern Great Lakes Synod Constitution Review Committee. We anticipate that the synod review will proceed in a timely manner. Future information sessions will be scheduled if the synod asks for any changes.

THANK YOU JESSICA FOR SERVING

Regrettably our church office secretary, Jessica Young, has resigned her position as she has taken a full-time job elsewhere. We thank Jessica for her service to Trinity and wish her well in her new position. Please note that you can still use the office email and call the office.

HOW DOES COMMUNION WORK?

All those who have been Baptized and affirm, with us, that Jesus is truly present in, with and under the bread and wine are welcome to participate in the sacrament of Holy Communion. We serve communion by intinction. As you come forward you will receive a piece of bread or communion wafer from the pastor or communion assistant and then you dip your piece of bread or wafer in the cup and eat it. Once you have received the bread and wine you return to your seat along the outside aisle.

Gluten Free wafers are available. please indicate that you would like to receive Gluten Free when you come forward.

Children who have not received instruction in the sacrament may come forward for a special blessing.
